The week of September 23-27 went down in Mako history. On Monday the theme was “The Good Ol’ Days” students dressed up as people from their favorite decade. During the assembly, each house competed with “Minute to Win It”. The Green House (Executo) won the games. On Tuesday the theme was “Our Future so Bright” many students wore bright colors and futuristic costumes. Again, during AO time, the houses competed in a trivia game and Green House (Executo) won again! Then on Wednesday, the day was “A Blast from the Past”, and students dressed up as historic celebrities. Finally, during AO time, the long-awaited powder-puff football game began. The Orange, Blue, and Black house team won being coached by Gunnar McNeely.

Towards the end of the week on Thursday, the school held the very first pep rally for homecoming. The cheerleaders were amazing, and the teachers dance moves were FANTASTIC. Then came the most intense part, the spirit stick. Each house had so much spirit, but the Yellow House (Habitus) took the win. The leader board for the house changes everyday, but even after homecoming week Black House (Consilium) is in the lead.

CADEN MCGATHA

“How do you feel about the upcoming football game?” -Kakki Law. Caden thinks if the team plays together, works hard, and gets after it we will do fine and have a good outcome. He said, we will have to play with our standards and play the game right. He also said, we can't go up to their place and think it is going to be easy just because we beat them once because they are coming out to beat us.”GO MAKOS!!!!”. “How do you like being part of the first mako football team?”-Kakki Law I like it a lot because I am making a standard and history. I really like it because of my coaches and my brothers that I get to be with and fight beside because I know they will give their all for meso i give it to do them.

TAYLOR GRIGSBY

“Taylor, how do you feel about being apart of the first ever OBMHS band?” -Isabella “I feel good about because I love expressing my love and passion for band.” - Taylor “How do you feel about the house system in OBMHS?” - Isabella “I’m enjoying my house (Red House) A ton and I’m happy that I can be apart of it.” -Taylor

ALEX DAVIS

“How was it transitioning from OBES, to OBMHS?” - Isabella “ There is a lot more to be involved in and there is more pressure to do better.” - Alex “How do you feel about your club? -Isabella “I feel like it is an important thing to do in all schools, we are very lucky to have this opportunity to branch out and try new things.” -Alex

In Mr. Cannova's class first we learned how to draw perceptive hallways. Then we learned contour line drawing and watercolor painting. In Mr. Cannova's Photography class they are learning aperture, shutter speed, and composition.

A Look Back at the Gulf Shores v.s. Orange Beach Middle School Game

By, Charlotte Griffin

On October 24, 2019 at 6:00 pm Orange Beach Middle School played Gulf Shores. Everyone in our Mako Nation was very excited for this game. It was a great game!! The Makos beat the Dolphins by 26 to 7. The band did a fantastic job at half time and our cheerleaders were terrific! Even though it rained a little I think everyone had a lot of fun. At the game most everyone wore pink to represent breast cancer awareness month. Our Mako Nation can't wait to play them again next year!

MAKO NEWS

According to Wikipedia, a newsletter is a regularly distributed publication that is generally about one main topic of interest to its subscribers. Newspapers and leaflets are types of newsletters.

For example, newsletters are distributed at schools to inform parents about things that happen in that school. Newsletters are published by clubs, churches, societies, associations, and businesses and our Mako Nation is a great place to do this too!
