1. High school students will make up full courses in summer school.
2. High school students need to earn a summer school course grade of 60 or higher to pass the course. The maximum final grade allowed in credit recovery is a 70.
3. *There will be no summer school enrollment fee for grade recovery courses or credit recovery courses due to failure. Summer School Fees for Initial Course Credit will be $300 per full course and $150 per half course. ACCESS is no longer offering credit advancement courses. Students may take up to two courses for initial credit during summer school. These initial credit courses are courses that students are taking to graduate early or to open up schedules for additional coursework during the year.
4. Credit recovery courses in ACCESS, Edgenuity, and any other program are not NCAA-approved. Most, but not all, regular ACCESS summer school courses are NCAA approved. Admission and eligibility requirements of various organizations are subject to change, and it is the student's responsibility to consult with outside organizations, such as universities, the Alabama High School Athletic Association, NCAA, etc. to determine how credits earned might affect eligibility, admissions, or status.
