

Sixth Grade News

September 9-13

Weekly Content

Math: Chapter: 2 Multiplying and Dividing Decimals

Reading: Unit 1: Week 2

Spelling: Fixing, spliced, prompted, catching, squinted, phoned, glasses, tracing, watches, covering, jabbed, goggles, chattering, sandwiches, discoveries, staring, appointed, uncovering, classrooms, projected

Social Studies: Week 3: Industrial Revolution

Science: Standard 12-14: Analyze & Interpret Data

Grammar: Singular and Plural Nouns

Need to know

- Monday: Open House 5:00-6:00
- Book Fair: This week!!
- Tuesday: Special Snack -Pizza $2.00
- Ice Cream Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays $1
- Please make sure you child is working on any multiplication facts they do not know each night.
- Please sign red behavior folders nightly.

Vocabulary Words:

Math: multiplicative inverse, reciprocal, repeating decimal, terminating decimal, benchmark, compatible number, common denominator, equivalent fraction, mixed number, simplest form

Science: radar, air masses, thermometers, barometers, anemometers, wet bulbs, quantitative, qualitative, fronts, The Greenhouse Effect, Global Warming, Urban Heat Islands, Carbon Footprint, convection, conduction, radiation, severe weather, Coriolis Effect, resources, development, water/air pollution, urbanization, global and regional temperatures

Social Studies: Industrial Revolution, textile, plant, factory, Fair Labor Standards Act, child labor, agrarian, mass-produced, homemade, labor union, The Gilded Age, tycoon, prosperity, gilding, robber barons, dividends, The Progressive Movement, Progressives, welfare, skyscraper

Homework Information

- Students will write any homework assignments in their agendas daily.
- Make sure your child reads for 20 minutes each night.
- IXL reading and math practice for 20 minutes a night if possible.