- Textbooks and any required materials for the courses are the responsibility of the student.
- The rights to private educational information (FERPA) transfer to the student upon enrollment, regardless of age.
- A grade of "D" or lower or withdrawal from a course will result in one term of ineligibility, can affect future financial aid status of students, and can affect high school credits and GPA.
- High school IEP/504 plans are not honored by postsecondary institutions (see below)
- If my student requires any accommodation for courses, my student must contact the college ADA representative before classes begin each term (see below)
- Parents/Guardians have the right to remove their student from the dual enrollment program at any time.

Students that submit documentation of qualifying disabilities to the college and meet the prerequisites of ACCS courses will be provided reasonable accommodations that allow equal access. Colleges are not required to provide equivalent accommodations as the high school. Modification of curriculum is not permitted.
