As of February 24, FWE is considered STEAM CERTIFIED! We successfully met the rigorous criteria for 16 standards. This distinguished certification is the culmination of five years of intentional work towards understanding STEAM as educators, using STEAM in the lab, and finally embedding STEAM activities in the classroom with greater frequency.

A HUGE thanks goes out to many: The STEAM Professional Learning Team (STEAM teacher leaders); the teachers for their perseverance and willingness to use constructivist approach to instruction; FEEF for their investment in STEAM materials, equipment, and the Pelican’s Nest; Hilary McKinney, Aaron Warner, and Kacie Hardman for their coaching leadership; students for embracing the problem-solving approach using collaborative process to work together; and parents for supporting our teachers as they continued their own educational practices.

STEAM Ambassadors, in no particular order: Annie Midence, Narayani Patel, Lucy McIntosh, George Hardman, Jocelyn Henderson, Leeland Workman, Matthias Berger, Mason Gardner, Jamar Potter, Dylan Gilbert, Maddie Miller, Tyler Ard, Max Orfabello, Sophie Gilbert, Avery Mathews, Jayda Davis, Keler Moore, Ty Nichols, Olivia Wilson, Margaret Conyers, Percy Jane Hardman, and Oliver Norton.

Create First FEW Magazine!

Last month, girls in 3rd and 4th grade attended a Girls in STEAM presentation by Meredith Montgomery, publisher of Natural Awakenings. The vision for the cover, including the name, Colorful STEAM, was created by Mrs. Warner’s girls. Meredith created the article titles and the opening paragraphs. From there, the girls had total control including editing. Meredith explained, “The girls got to experience a glimpse into the publishing world, from working on a very short deadline under pressure, to the technological logistics of the process. This is how publishing takes place these days—we all work remotely and rely heavily on shared documents!”

It’s Time to Tee Off for Education and Support Our Schools!

The four-person scramble, presented by title sponsor Terry Thompson Chevrolet, will offer morning and afternoon start times, lunch provided by Imperial Dade, drinks, on-course competitions, winning prizes and more.

All proceeds from the tournament are distributed by the Fairhope Educational Enrichment Foundation (FEEF) directly back into Fairhope’s five public schools. These funds provide programs and equipment to our students and teachers that are not made possible through traditional funding the schools receive. This includes science labs, STEAM labs, piano, choir, guitar, theatre, art, engineering, robotics, teacher classroom grants and more.

How Can You Help?

Kindergarten Celebrates the 100th Day of School

Each year a strange phenomenon hits Fairhope West – kindergarteners and teachers age to 100 years old! Even amidst COVID and Hurricane Sally, the 100th Day of School arrived and the children aged again! Thank you, parents, for helping make this day very special.
Here is a quick video overview of our fundraising program.

Also, here are a few things to know about this important fundraiser:

- All students get to participate in the event day, regardless of financial participation.
- This fundraiser comes with an incredible character development program for students where they'll be learning about the importance of teamwork, care, courage, grit and celebration.

Fairhope West is asking all parents/guardians and students in Grades 3 and up to participate in a survey called the MRA survey – Measurable Results Survey. It focuses on teaching 21st-century leadership and life skills to students to create a culture of student empowerment based on the idea that every child can be a leader. The data from these surveys will also help us track the impacts of the practices that positively affect school climate, culture, and student learning. Please click on the link below:
